How Sanders Works

Even though Sanders is much more than just a pretty place to stay, we care a lot about the look and feel of our properties.

It's the feeling that every guest experiences when they walk through our doors. It's a feeling of comfort.

Of luxury. Of warmth. Of familiarity.

When guests stay with us at Sanders, they know that they will experience these same feelings every time they stay with us. This is what sets us apart in the short-term rental market: our branded concept. Our guests can always expect the same contemporary style, homey amenities, and genuine customer service from Sanders with every stay, similar to a high-quality hotel chain. We are unique in that we bring these hotel-like standards to private, authentic homes so that our guests can sense the comforts of being at home while enjoying a luxurious get-away.

We provide the best of both worlds.

Whether it's in a beach-side villa in the Mediterranean or a posh apartment in Scandinavia, the Sanders brand is perceptible. Our furniture styles, colour concepts, amenity packages, and guest experience are uniform and reliable in all of our properties around the world.

The Sanders "S" logo is the concise representation of our identity and immediate invokes the Sanders feelings in anyone who sees it. Guests know instantly from seeing our logo what they can expect: quality.
